THE CONFIRMATION CLASS

The small size of the Confirmation Class this year is due to a number of contributing causes but principally to the migration of many Jewish families to other distant boroughs of the city. The following are the list of confirmants and their parts on the Consecration program on the first day of Shebuoth:

Sylvia R. Cohen, Our Springtime.

Ada Bauman, Opening Prayer.

Arline Levy, Floral Offering.

Beatrice Klavaus, Obedience.

Marion E. Schuckman, Farewell and Welcome.

Evelyn Weissman, Jewish Womanhood.

The Congregation offers sincere congratulations to these young ladies and their parents and relatives.

SISTERHOOD

Regular Meetings 2nd and 4th Tuesday. Sewing Circle meets on 1st and 3rd Tuesdays from 11 to 4 P.M. The garments made by the Sewing Circle are for the Children of the Israel Orphan Asylum.

Many thanks are due to Sister Sylvia Schulman as Chairman of Entertainment for a very interesting and enjoyable afternoon spent at our Open Meeting on Tuesday, March 24th. A very Elaborate Programme was arranged consisting of the following Artists: A great cellist, who played Bruch's Kol Nidre and an encore from Bach accompanied by our organist, Mr. Doersam. Vocal selections from Rigoletto by Miss Lillian Gresham formerly with the Chicago Opera Co., accompanied on the piano by Mrs. J. Leuder.

Through the courtesy of Miss Beatrice O. Rosenthal two very talented children were secured; Baby June Barrich and Frances Pound who sang and gave recitations. We also had the pleasure of a short talk by our own dear Rabbi, Dr. Schulman on Superstition. Refreshments were then served.

An annual Get-together Party for Sisters only will be celebrated on Tuesday, May 12th, at 12 P. M., in the form of a Box Luncheon and Entertainment. The regular meeting will follow.

The Monthly Bridge and Card Party under the auspices of Sisters

Jennie Bloom, Sophie Benjamin and Bertha Kosminsky will be held Monday, May 18th at 2 P.M. in the Vestry Rooms. Handsome prizes will be awarded and refreshments served.

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Sister and Mr. Edelman upon the Bar Mitzvah of their dear son.

Heartiest congratulations are offered to Sister and Mr. Max Hamburg upon the marriage of their daughter, Hortense.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Sister Myra Dreyfuss on the untimely passing of her dear brother.

The Sisters are requested to kindly notify the Financial Secretary of their change of address as soon as such change is made.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On Sunday morning, April 5th, the Religious School and its guests had a great time watching the moving pictures which related the Passover Story. Mr. J. Goldenkopf was very helpful in explaining parts of the picture to the younger children.

On April 19th, we were fortunate in having with us Mr. Jesse Fox, Principal of the Patrick Henry Junior High School and member of our School Board. Mr. Fox addressed the girls and boys on "How to Spread Sunshine." The applause which followed the talk was spontaneous and show that the pupils were indeed delighted at having the pleasure of listening to him.

Final examinations will be held on May, 17th. Closing Exercises on May 31st at 2 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

We hope that the children will not forget their religious training during the approaching summer. We trust that all will have a very happy and pleasant summer vacation and will return to us in September in the best of health and great numbers.

This being the last issue of the Bulletin for the year, we take this opportunity of stating that the Sunday School had a very successful year; and we wish to thank everyone for his or her kind co-operation.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE

The Junior League will gather for its social meeting at the Temple Auditorium on Saturday, May 23rd, 1931.

The entertainment committee has decided that the wind-up of the season will take place in the form of a boat ride, probably on June 14th. Details to be announced.

The organization takes this opportunity of thanking those members of the congregation who have given this group support. The Junior League is one of the few organizations of this nature connected with a temple, that has been able to stand on its own feet and has completed another year of activity without subsidy. It is hoped that those of the Sunday School Alumni who have not joined will come forth to further the aims of the Junior League.

Leonard Price, Vice-president, received his degree at Columbia University, and is a member of the honorary Phi Beta Kappa Society.

Gertrude Freund, corresponding secretary, completed her course at Hunter College where she specialized in languages.

Jack I. Maltz, president, is a graduate of City College, and also a lawyer, having been graduated from the New York University Law School with the Juris Doctor Degree.

Cecile Bernstein, presiding secretary, is a teacher in the New York City schools.

Marvin Segal, treasurer, is pursuing his studies at City College. Among the Executive Committee we find: Pauline Hahn, secretary of the Sunday School; Miriam Wollenberger, who will graduate from Hunter College in June, 1931, and is a teacher in the Sunday School of the Temple.

With an array of such young men and women the Junior League should attract an extensive following of the younger set for sociability and culture and become an asset to the Park Avenue Synagogue.
